TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

"For all the promises of God in Him are Yes, and in Him Amen, to the glory of God through us."

(2 Corinthians 1:20, NKJ)

You may not realize it, but God has already said "yes" to His promises in your life. You don't have to beg God to be good to you. You don't have to plead with Him to help you. God wants to help you. He wants to pour out blessing in your life.

It also says that His promises are "amen." That means "so be it"—it's a done deal. All you have to do is make sure you are living up to your end of the bargain. See, God's love is unconditional, but He has requirements for us to fulfill in order to see His promises come to pass in our lives. For example, Malachi 3:10 says that we have to bring our tithes in order to see the windows of heaven opened. It says in Deuteronomy 5 that we are to honor our parents in order to live a long life. The good news is, when we surrender our hearts to Him, He empowers us to fulfill every one of His commands. You stand secure knowing that God is faithful! Keep standing, keep believing, and keep following His commands because His promises are "yes" and "amen" in your life!

A PRAYER FOR TODAY

Father God, thank You for Your faithfulness and goodness in my life. I believe that Your plan is to pour out Your blessing and favor on me. Give me the strength to obey Your commands all the days of my life. In Jesus' Name. Amen.
